
Administration of Doctoral Studies at Charles University

The management and control of doctoral studies has been implemented since the 2015/2016 academic year at all faculties in the relevant module of doctoral studies in the UK Study and Information System. The main task of the supervisor is to submit the checked Individual Study Plan with his/her opinion to the departmental board of the relevant study programme