
Important links for supervisors

The important links tab is a centralization of a few selected nodes containing information related to the activity of the supervisor.

The overview of supervisors, which is also provided in the information for applicants and students, indicates, among other things, how many PhD students a supervisor has under his/her supervision.