
Information on the Admission Procedure

Detailed information on the content of entrance examinations, evaluation criteria and the conditions for admission to study programs and fields of study can be found in the Code of Admissions Procedure or from the relevant department of the given faculty.

Individual faculties of Charles University have different requirements on the form, requirements and annexes of the application, therefore applicants submit applications for study directly to the faculty to which they apply. Proof of payment of the fee for the admission procedure is required together with the application. The amount of the fee and the method of its payment shall be determined by the faculty according to established rules.

The fee is non-refundable at any stage of the proceedings.

More detailed information about the fees can be found here .
