The Doctoral Study Hub is a platform for all postgraduate students that gives you access to courses, seminars and workshops. The aim of this platform is to help to develop your scientific career and provide information for completing your dissertation.

Courses for doctoral students

You can see a comprehensive offer of all events and courses on the Calendar of events and courses for PhD students or at the Educational Portal.

For better overview and further development, the courses are categorised into five basic headings. New courses and capacities will continue to be added during the academic year.
