
Manuals and Regulations for Study

This section contains documents to help doctoral students better orient themselves in their studies. The Basic Information for Students of Doctoral Study Programme 2021/2022 and the Manual for the DSP are text documents that provide detailed information on the issues related to doctoral studies, which are also briefly summarised on this website in the Study Information.

The study-related regulations concentrate a selection of the University's internal legal regulations.