Short-term study abroad

Short-term study abroad are often a requirement for entering the professional scientific sphere. Mobility of academic staff and students is ensured by international agreements, contracts and exchange programmes, including:

• Erasmus+
• CEEPUS
• DAAD
• Aktion
• Fulbright
• NAWA - Polish National Agency for Academic Exchange

Long term study abroad

In addition to short-term internships, it is also possible to complete an entire study abroad, receive a foreign scientific degree and be a student of Charles University at the same time.

Programmes are used for such studies:

• Joint Degree & Multiple Degree
• Cotutelle

The doctoral student can complete a full course of study within an internationally accredited degree programme and receive one (Joint Degree) or more (Multiple Degree) degrees or complete a doctorate in two departments under dual supervision (cotutelle).

1. The Hong Kong PhD Fellowship Scheme
The Research Grants Council of Hong Kong is launching the Fourteenth Round of the Hong Kong PhD Fellowship Scheme (the “Scheme”) for 2023/24 academic year intake. At present, the fellowship provides a monthly stipend of HK$27,100 (approx. US$3,470) and a conference and research-related travel allowance of HK$13,600 (approx. US $1,740) per year for a period of three years. A total of 300 fellowships will be awarded for PhD studies commencing in the 2023/24 academic year.

Online initial application is accepted from 1 September 2022 (12:00 noon Hong Kong Time (GMT + 8 hours) to 1 December 2022 (12:00 noon Hong Kong Time (GMT + 8 hours).

You may make reference to our poster and leaflet of the Scheme or visit the Scheme’s website for more detailed information on application procedures and the eight participating universities in Hong Kong.

If you require further information, please feel free to contact us at HKPF@ugc.edu.hk.